

You may be eligible for the...

CRITICAL TEACHING NEEDS SCHOLARSHIP

THE CRITICAL TEACHING NEEDS SCHOLARSHIP

opens doors for students preparing to work in a critical need teaching area. Students who will be juniors or seniors in the upcoming academic year and who are accepted into an elementary or secondary education program at a participating South Dakota post-secondary institution are eligible to apply!

All K-12 Teaching Positions are considered critical need occupations!

APPLY NOVEMBER 1 - DECEMBER 15
visit sdbor.edu/scholarships

ELIGIBILITY FOR AWARD

- Agree in writing to stay in South Dakota and work in a critical teaching need occupation for five years after graduating from a participating post secondary institution;
- To qualify, you must be an undergraduate at a participating South Dakota institution during your final two years and fully admitted to an elementary or secondary education program in a critical need teaching area; and
- Have a minimum cumulative 2.8 GPA, and an average of 2.8 GPA for all major coursework.

AWARD DETAILS

- The Critical Teaching Needs Scholarship Board determines the scholarship amount awarded.
- However, the award amount will consider the student's remaining financial need and will not exceed the maximum tuition and applicable fees for 30 credit hours at a SD Board of Regents institution.
- Not all eligible applicants will receive a scholarship; only a limited number will be selected. All applicants will be notified after the Board makes its decision.
- If the student is awarded funding in their third year of school, this scholarship is renewable for their fourth year as well.

THE CRITICAL TEACHING NEEDS COMMITMENT

- Recipients must agree to work for five years in a critical need teaching position in South Dakota after completing their program of study.
- If the recipient does not complete his/her commitment, the scholarship converts to a low interest loan which must be repaid.

SCAN HERE
TO LEARN MORE AND APPLY!